

Winter Sports In N. Y. Have Full Schedule

Winter sports are in full swing during January in New York State.

The Outdoor Speed Skating Championships will take place at Lake Placid Jan. 8-9, and Keene will hold skating races Jan. 29 as part of the AuSable Winter Carnival.

Skiing events include the Master's Jump at Intervales Ski Jump, Lake Placid, Jan. 9; Tibbetts-McCarthy Races at Gore Mountain Ski Center, North Creek, Jan. 15-16.

There will be ski jumping at Bear Mountain, Jan. 8-9, 15-16 and 23. The National Modern Winter Biathlon, a military ski competition, will be at Rosendale on Jan. 23.

A unique contest will take place at Cortlandt, Jan. 30, when the Onondaga Indians will have a Snow Snake Contest at Greek Peak. Niagara Falls will hold a series of carnival weekends, varying the theme each time. These will be held Jan. 14-16, 21-23 and 28-30. The Holiday Mountain Winter Carnival takes place at Monticello, Jan. 21-23; Jan. 22-23 brings the Adirondack Winter Festival to Warrensburg, and on Jan. 16, Livingston Manor holds its annual Ice Carnival.
